LAND FOR SALE

The muscriber will dispose of at Public Safe, on Monday the 8th of Septemble next, iff not previously disposed of at private agle, 2Two, Veluable Tracts of Lind. lying in South River Neck. These two tracts, the one called Collegiby, and the other Brewer's Chance Lineld, heingenmand as Chance Chance tuleld; being commercial contain 300 bres nore or less making a Farm sufficiently extensive for the generality of farmers of planters in that neighbourhood. The quality of this land is equal to most of the tsudayin. South River Yeck, and may, by the application of clover and plaister, the latter of which is particularly adapted to this soil be made in a few years inferior to none in the county. The improvements used and to the soil of the county. provements upon said farm have been very good, and it possesses every ne-cessary building except a dwelling house, which was destroyed by fire last Spring, and may be rebuilt at an inconsiderable extense, as the cellar, walls and gable did remain unipjured. There is an abundance of oak, chesnut, and pine wood, the latter of which is principally large around for any or any principally large enough for cord-wood, and there is almost an inexaustible quantity; there are also two very fine young apple orchards which yield in the greatest abundance, likewise a variety of other choice and valuable fruits. The said land enjoys the advantages of the navigable waters of both 5-2. the navigable waters of both South & Rhode rivers, it being bounded by the Rhode rivers, it being bounded by the former, and contiguous to the latter, within a quarter of a mile. As it is presumed that those vishing to nurchase will examine the bove lands, before the day of sale, the subscriber deems it unnecessary to give a more minute description of the advantages and improvements of the same.

The terms of sale will be one half of the purchase money cash, and a liberal credit, with a good security for the bolance, with interest from the day of sale.
